

COX WINS NOMINATION

OHIO'S GOVERNOR NAMED DEMOCRACY'S LEADER

Great Contest Comes To Close At San Francisco At 2:30 This Morning— Franklin Roosevelt May Get Second Place

(By Associated Press)

San Francisco, July 6.—James Middleton Cox, thrice governor of Ohio, was nominated for the presidency at 2:43 o'clock this morning by the Democratic National Convention in the breakup of the most prolonged deadlock in the history of the national political parties. He was nominated on the 44th ballot, gaining the majority of the votes Palmer released on the 38th ballot, thus holding the advantage thereafter over McAdoo.

With the choice made, the convention adjourned to noon today to name a candidate for vice president. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, seemed the favorite for the nomination on the opening ballot Friday.

Cox, in third place, soon passed over Palmer, and on the 12th ballot headed McAdoo. Then began a seesawing contest between the Cox and McAdoo totals, which at the end of the 39th roll call at midnight last night found the two virtually the same. On the 42nd ballot the accession of most of the Palmer strength to Cox put him ahead. On the 43rd ballot he got a majority for the first time of all the votes cast.

On the 44th ballot he was plunging toward the required two-thirds, when Colorado changed her vote to him and made his nomination obvious.

The nomination was made unanimous on motion of Sam B. Amidon, of Kansas, leader of the McAdoo forces. His total then was 702 1-2; McAdoo, 266 1-2; Palmer, 1.

The Late st Ballots

The 31st Ballot stood: McAdoo, 414 1-2; Cox, 319 1-2; Palmer, 174; Davis, 57 1-2.

The 32nd ballot stood: McAdoo, 421; Cox, 391; Palmer, 176; Davis, 55 1-2.

The 33rd ballot stood: McAdoo 421; Cox, 380 1-2; Palmer, 180; Davis, 56.

The 34th ballot stood: McAdoo, 420 1-2; Cox, 379 1-2; Palmer, 184; Davis, 54.

The 35th ballot stood: McAdoo, 409; Cox, 379 1-2; Palmer, 222; Davis, 34.

Declining since the balloting started in the morning, Attorney General Palmer showed surprising gains on the 34th and 35th ballots, bring his total to 222. After the 35th ballot his supporters began a demonstration, marching about the hall, singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic meanwhile.

Reports that delegates were tired of the deadlock and getting ready to switch and talk of a recess until 8 o'clock were heard.

The 36th ballot stood: McAdoo, 399; Cox, 377; Palmer, 241; Davis, 28.

The convention adjourned after the 36th ballot until 8:30 o'clock.

HARDING SENDS CONGRATULATIONS

(By Associated Press)

Marion, Ohio, July 6.—Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, in a statement today said Governor Cox deserved the Democratic presidential nomination, but added that his selection would not change the Republican campaign plans, in Ohio anyway.

Harding at the same time also sent Cox congratulations on his success. "Cox's nomination is an added consideration shown our great state of Ohio, for which I am glad, and gives reasonable assurance that finally a newspaper man is to be made president," he said. Harding's statement added, "It is a great party contest before us to be fought, great principles involved, and neither place of residence nor personality will have any marked influence on the result."

WILSON SENDS COX HIS CONGRATULATIONS

Columbus, Ohio, July 6.—Congratulations from the president were received by Gov. Cox this morning upon his nomination, the message from the president reading, "Please accept my hearty congratulations and cordial best wishes."

Governor Edwards, of New Jersey, the defeated candidate, also sent congratulations, adding, "the nomination is well deserved and spells success. It means united support of the Democratic party."

Won't Be Offered Him

Newark, N. J., July 6.—Governor Edwards said today he could not consider the vice presidential nomination if it is offered him.

Governor Cox was at his office last night and prepared to stay all night, if necessary, to hear the returns.

DEMOCRACY'S STANDARD BEARER

STORY OF COX'S LIFE

(By Associated Press)

James Middleton Cox was three times governor of Ohio—an honor enjoyed by only one other Ohio Man, Rutherford B. Hays.

Born on a farm, educated in the public schools, a printer's devil, a school teacher, a newspaper reporter, a private secretary to a congressman, owner, manager and proprietor of two newspapers and member of congress for three years and three times governor of his state is his record to date.

Business success paralleled his political achievements and thru his own efforts Cox has amassed a fortune. Mr. Cox became the leader of the Democratic party in Ohio in 1912 when he was nominated for governor. As one who had brought radical changes in the state constitution, he took the field in its behalf. His first term as governor was devoted chiefly to forwarding the enactment of laws to put the new state constitution into effect.

But Ohio evidently was not prepared to assimilate all the new laws, for Cox was defeated for reelection. But his party renominated him in 1916 and he was re-elected for a third term in 1918, being the only Democrat to win in Ohio.

Legislation for which Governor Cox is best known includes a model workmen's compensation law and a child labor law which have been extensively copied by other states. Educators of the country say the Ohio school code, enacted under Governor Cox's direction, will live as a monument to his achievements.

Mr. Cox was born in Butler county, Ohio, in 1870. He attended district school and held his first position as a teacher of the school in which he took his first lessons. He spent his evenings and holidays in printing office. In a few years he received his first assignment on the reportorial staff of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

After ten years with the Enquirer, he went to Washington as a private secretary to Congressman Paul Sore, of Ohio. At the close of this service, he purchased the Dayton Daily News, borrowing most of the money to pay for it. Later he purchased the Springfield Daily News. He was first elected to congress in 1908.

He recently purchased the farm near Jacksonburg upon which he was born and is making it into a modern farm home where he expects to live on retirement from public office. He married and has four children.

One Vote For Miss Clay
San Francisco, July 6.—Miss Laura Clay, of Richmond, Ky., yesterday received the vote of P. H. Callahan, of Louisville, on one ballot. Miss Clay is a suffrage leader who has been a Cox delegate.

COLBY MAY GET IT

(By Associated Press)

San Francisco, July 6.—Although called to meet at noon, the Democratic convention, recovering from its long sessions in the presidential fight, was slow in getting down to picking the vice presidential nominee.

While the nominating speeches were being made, it is reported the Tammany organization was opposed to the nomination of Franklin D. Roosevelt, New York, assistant secretary of the navy.

Talk revived for Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, who said earlier he did not want his name presented.

After much pressure was brought to bear upon Secretary Colby to accept the vice presidential nomination, it was said he would accept it if "drafted." The nomination seemed to be conceded to New York.

Chairman Robinson read the convention a telegram from Cox accepting the nomination and expressing his appreciation of the honor.

BEND MAN'S RECORD FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

Geo. W. Tribble Has Not Missed a County Convention In More Than Forty Years

Forty-two years ago this month the first Sunday School convention was held in Madison county, and one of the first speakers of the day was George W. Tribble, who has not missed attending a county convention since, and he addressed the convention which was held at Flatwoods.

The convention opened Saturday, July 3, with President Quinn Covington in attendance and in charge. In an interesting address he called the convention to order and described the purpose of the Sunday School, together with the manner in which the many younger students as well as others were taking an active interest. There were seven Sunday Schools represented and the meeting will go on record as one of the most interesting held in a number of years in this section of the county. Each school was presented and represented by its superintendent.

George W. Tribble proved to be the oldest superintendent present, as stated above, he having been identified with the Sunday Schools of county for 42 years, taking an active part. He is now superintendent of the Bend school and as such, delivered an eloquent address in behalf of the members and interest manifest by them. He stated that while his school was occupying an isolated position in the county and the members were not able to get about and see as much of the world as some of the others, he complimented them, one and all, upon the interest they had taken and stated that his marked degree of interest was responsible for the success of the Sunday Schools today. He began at the beginning of the Sunday School 42 years ago and reviewed the work and progress through the years to the present day.

There were addresses by others among whom were Miss Marie Dennis and Willie Richardson, classed as "juniors," who spoke interestingly. There was a "big dinner," one that will long be remembered by those present, and pledge taken by almost everyone present to make it a point to be at the next annual meeting one year hence.

The fact that there is a steady and rapid progress in the building up of the Sunday School work of Madison county was developed at this convention. There are new Sunday Schools opening at various places in the county where services have been closed since the beginning of the war. The Million district is one of them; then there are additional schools being made bigger by membership drives, which are continued throughout the county with marked success. It is said the average returned overseas war veteran especially is taking more than a passing pride in attending the Sunday Schools, and this is one of the reasons for the increasing of both schools and membership.

RICHMOND TEAM LOSES HARD GAME

There was some base ball game Monday at Mt. Vernon, according to the opinion of every member of the Richmond base ball team, which opposed the Mt. Vernon team as one of the features to the Fourth of July celebration. There were nine innings of real base ball during which time there were two scores made by the home team, while a cipher denoted the inability of the Richmond aggregation getting around, but they played base ball just the same. The team, managed by George McCoy, is the first one that has held Mt. Vernon to this score this season and it is believed that the local team could win from them if given another chance. This will probably come with a game booked for Richmond in the near future.

KENTUCKIANS FAVOR MEREDITH

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., July 6.—Harry Bloom in a special to the Post today quotes Congressman Cantrill as saying, "Governor Cox will carry Kentucky, defeat Mr. Harding in his home state and be the next president of the United States."

Cantrill, who with Joe Morris, first induced Cox to try seriously for the nomination, based his prediction, Bloom said, on Kentucky's strategic position in the Cox camp.

Kentucky's vote on the last ballot stood for the first time 26 solid for Cox. Bloom further says the Kentucky delegation generally favors Meredith, of Iowa, for the vice presidency because of his hold on the farmers.

PROBATION OF JOHN R. GIBSON WILL

The will of the late John R. Gibson, formerly of this city, who died at his home in Cincinnati, where he had been making his residence during the past few years, will be offered for probate probably today in the county court, and within a day of two the court at Hamilton county, Cincinnati.

Mr. Gibson, according to his will, which was made on January 31, 1916, asks that an administrator be appointed without bond, in the person of Joseph C. Gibson, of Somerset, Ky., be named and that his debts and all obligations be paid with insurance, after which his widow, Mrs. Lucy McGuffin Gibson, is bequeathed one-third of the remaining estate, and the remaining two-thirds to his three children, Mary Ellen, Elizabeth Virginia and John R. Gibson, Jr.

Bourbon County Farmer Shoots 1 Of Holdup Trio

Paris, Ky., July 6.—While J. H. Wagoner was driving on Spear's Mill pike, two holdup men seized the bridle of his horse while the third attempted to climb into his buggy. Mr. Wagoner fired three shots at the men, one of which he thinks took effect. They fled into the darkness. Shortly after an automobile party reported passing three men, two of whom were Wagoner believes the men were Mexicans.

Slaughter and Gang Said To Be Surrounded

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., July 6.—The rendezvous of Tom Slaughter, alleged Kentucky bank robber, and his gang have been located in the hills of Hopkins county and all are under the surveillance of officers, J. P. McKeown, private detective, said today. McKeown said two members of the gang followed and tried to outwit officers a week ago at Horse Cave in the hope that they could be followed to Slaughter's hiding place.

BIG COURT DAYS LOOKED FOR SOON

The sale of horses during court day Monday was very slow and the prices low, according to the many who had both horses and mules for sale, there being but little demand for either at this particular time of the year. It is evident by the sale that the horse has not finished his season's work and there will not be any giving up of horse power for the time being. It is presumed that a month hence, when the summer work on the farms has been completed in the way of field work, there will be a great demand for both horses and mules and that the court day next month, and especially that for the month of September, will bring about numerous sales. Many of those bringing horses to the city for sale yesterday returned home with them before nightfall, they realizing there was no demand.

CHAUTAUQUA IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Two Hundred Extra Seats Placed In Huge Tent To Accommodate Patrons

Although 200 extra chairs have been provided and the capacity of the Chautauqua tents is greater than ever, it is filled every night with the Chautauqua well under way and evidently the appreciation is both upon the part of the patrons as well as the performers. Gilbert & Sullivan's "Pinafore" was the attraction Monday night that filled the tent to overflowing. The special scenic lighting effects proved of wonderful assistance in presenting the production which has become so popular throughout the country.

This afternoon, "Modern Unrest," by Donald B. McGibney, was attended and appreciated by a large audience. Mr. McGibney is the man who unearthed the crookedness among the ranks of the noted Gary factory and which resulted in a number of men being deported to Russia.

Tonight the American comedy, "Nothing but the Truth" will be presented and there is a continuance of the high class entertainments, for on the Swiss musicians will be in evidence according to program.

The attendance since the beginning has been far above the average.

J. H. RISLEY HERE FOR WEEK'S WORK

J. H. Risley, of the city schools of Owensboro, arrived Sunday evening for his week's work at the Normal School. Mr. Risley comes to Richmond at the time to speak to the students at the local institution on the problems of administering a city school system. He was elected president of the Kentucky Educational Association at the last meeting after having served so efficiently as chairman of the legislative committee. He is one of the best known school men in the state and President Coates is to be congratulated upon bringing him to Richmond this summer.

Political Announcements
The Daily Register is authorized to announce the following candidates for subject to the action of the Democracy.

For Congress,
Shelby County,
RANK RICHMOND, Anderson county.

JAMES M. COX

The Democracy of the nation offers one of its most stalwart and faithful sons to the nation as its standard bearer in the coming election for the presidency. Having met every demand, having satisfied every need of his great commonwealth during three terms as its governor, James M. Cox of Ohio is remarkably equipped and qualified to step higher up to the chief magistracy of the nation to which his party has called him, and to which the nation will elect him, if all signs go not awry.

The nomination of Gov. Cox at a hard contest, but that's what he has known ever since he first became a public figure. His friends made at Frisco the never-say-die fight that three time elected him to the governorship and which it may well be assumed, will be made to send him to Washington.

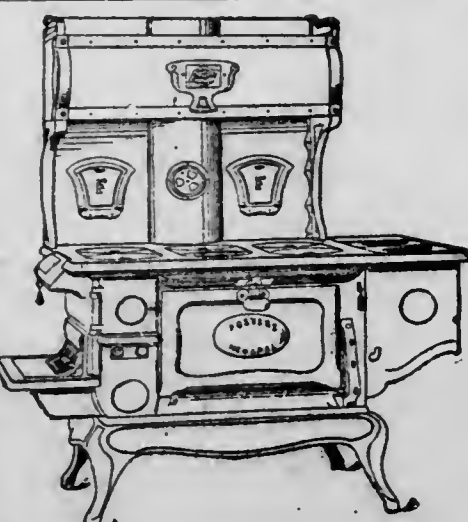

Columns have been written of his work as Ohio's governor, and the reforms and progress that he has given that great state while at its helm. His life is an open book, his record has constantly known the closest scrutiny. He has been vigorously attacked, often times the victim of a blow below the belt, but from it all he has emerged, the splendid, clean citizen devoted to the cause of the people, especially the working people, yet cognizant of the responsibilities of business and its needs, and with a backbone that knows no fear in pursuit of right and equal and exact justice to all.

The United States can well entrust the helm of her destinies into the hands of James M. Cox for the next four years. Kentucky should well be proud that she was in the vanguard of those who insisted upon drafting his splendid abilities for the cause of the nation. That he will return Kentucky back to her first love of Democracy with an old-time majority, there isn't the slightest doubt in the world.

Mr. Ben Mullins, of Mt. Vernon, was here on a business trip Saturday.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

Sprinkling rates have been made for use of hose while held in hand and can be used only during daylight hours.

Some consumers leave hose running and waste much water. It requires coal which costs $12 per ton to pump water and the coal is hard to get even at that price. The income of the Water Company is not meeting its expenditures at this time and the only recourse it has is to raise rates. To be saving water by not using it except for necessary purposes is the only way to prevent a raise of rates. Water will be turned off without further notice when found running.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui.

By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month, that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise our friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MINNIE MANDELKO, 1005 S. 18th St., & 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Mandelko was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Those who need special advice may write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. These letters will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE RHODA ROYAL IS CIRCUS COMING

Notwithstanding the reports made current by the envious agents of a would-be rival show which promises to exhibit in this section, that the enormous railroad shows managed by Rhoda Royal would not exhibit here, we are pleased to be able to inform our readers (having had proof positive given us by the managers) that the Rhoda Royal show will positively exhibit at Richmond on Tuesday, July 20, in its vast entirety.

Every act, every animal, every novelty, every strange and doubly wondrous feature will be seen here as they have been seen in great metropolises of the world. The entire three-ring mammoth circus, the unapproachable five-continent menagerie, the real Roman hippodrome, the trained wild beast show, and the trained animal college; all the famous foreign features; all the mighty features, everything which makes the Rhoda Royal R. R. show the greatest and best.

Dogwood and Sylvan Pottery

It gives us pleasure to announce that we have on display Dogwood and Sylvan Pottery. So lovely that they enhance the beauty of either flower or fern placed within their cool green interior—they also make unusual ornaments in themselves.

The Dogwood is a pottery of soft green, its lustrous, smooth surface broken here and there with creamy Dogwood blossoms. Of a delicate pastel red decorated with an unusual pattern in pale green, the Sylvan pottery holds its own in the world of beauty.

RED HOUSE WORK WILL BEGIN SOON

The suits filed in the county court recently, looking toward the change in roadways for the elimination of two railroad crossings at Red House, were reported upon favorably to County Engineer Baxter, there being no objections, and the matter is now in shape for advertising for contracts, which will be done within the next two weeks, and it is proposed to start the work of improvement as soon as possible.

It is expected that all of the contemplated improvements, including the construction of the bridge across Otter creek, will be early fall. The plans for the new school house will also be prepared soon, and it is the desire of the citizens of the vicinity, who have been so active in the campaign for funds for the improvements, that the work will be started upon the structure soon, with the intention of having what one of them termed a "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year," with all the improvement work and the changes being enjoyed.

ADMINISTRATOR FOR LAWSON ESTATE

Mrs. Rosa Lawson, widow of James Lawson, farmer, who shot and killed himself last Wednesday night at his home near Paint Lick after an ineffectual attempt to kill his wife, whom he shot, waived her right relative to qualifying as administratrix to the estate of her husband and this responsibility was taken over by R. G. Woods, whose bond was fixed at $2,500, and Robert Lawson, a relative of the dead man, surety.

Wilson Brandenburg, Harry Francis and Millard Ledford were appointed as appraisers. The condition of Mrs. Lawson, who was taken to the Johnson hospital, Berea, is recovering, and it is believed she will be able to be out soon. She is reticent regarding the affairs of herself and husband. However, she stated to those attending her that her husband shot her an admitted that they had had domestic troubles.

LEXINGTON MAN IS RIVER VICTIM

Harry D. Wilson, Prominent Postal Employee, Drowned Near Boonesboro Monday

While swimming in the Kentucky river at Boonesboro Monday afternoon, Harry D. Wilson, clerk in the postoffice at Lexington, met death by drowning, it is said, within a short distance of one of the government guards who was in a boat near him.

Wilson, who was 38 years old, is said to have lived with his mother at Lexington, and went to Boonesboro to spend the afternoon, it being a holiday in the postal department, the Fourth of July being observed. Wilson's body was discovered after it had been reported for some time that a man had been drowned. The evidence, as given, indicates that the man went down without a struggle and made no outcry, and it is probable that the drowning would not have become known for some time had it not been for one man down the river, who claimed that he had seen a man go down and not come up. The identity of the man couldn't be ascertained, however, and a search was made with the result that the river was dragged, the body being recovered shortly after 4 o'clock. Coroner E. H. Muncey, of Richmond, was notified and went to the scene. No inquest was necessary and the body was taken to the home at Lexington. Wilson, who had been in the employ of the government for a number of years, is said to have been very popular, and his persistent work at the postoffice had won for him during the past few years a number of promotions.

Wilson had gone with a number of friends, who thought he could swim, it is understood. He went a short distance from the bank, and soon stepped off over his head. The body was gotten out of the water after about 20 minutes, and every effort was made to resuscitate the man. He was rolled over on a barrel. Dr. D. J. Williams was summoned, and worked hard and faithfully together with other physicians who were present. At one time, his frantic friends thought that they detected a flickering of the heart and efforts were redoubled, but it was without avail, and the body was taken back to his home in Lexington.

Loss of Appetite

As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or eat only two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before the second meal is taken. Then if you eat more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation, as often is the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it. July
